Protect your pet like one of the family.

"When Gigi, our 2.5-pound Yorkie, snuck an olive pit off the table one day, no one noticed. But soon she started throwing up. At the vet, it took lots of tests to find the olive pit. She needed surgery to get it out.

We were really worried for our little Gigi, and we were thrilled when she came back home. We were so grateful we had ASPCA Pet Health Insurance.

We would definitely recommend it because it's not just the wellness visits you have to be prepared for, but the unplanned 'olive pits' of the pet world."

-David S. - Boston, MA

We reimbursed David S. $2,548.02 for Gigi's accident. With a comparable plan from one of our competitors, he only would have received $1,363.
